

Table of Contents

Introduction	xv
Part I: Antitrust Fundamentals	1
Chapter 1. Foundational Economic Assumptions	3
1. Markets, Competition, and Marginal Costs	3
2. Market Power, Efficiency, Deadweight Losses, and Wealth Transfers	6
3. Consumer Welfare and Other Objectives of Antitrust Policy	8
4. Competitive Markets, Monopoly Power, and Forms of Anticompetitive Conduct	10
Chapter 2. Triage of Antitrust Problems	13
1. Statutes and Common Law	13
2. Rules and Standards	15
3. Precedent and History	16
4. Vertical and Horizontal Relationships	17
Chapter 3. Market Definition and Market Power	19
1. Defining Relevant Markets	19
1.1 The Cellophane Fallacy	20
1.2 Grinnell and Unique Customer Preferences	24
1.3 Brown Shoe and Submarkets	28
1.4 Putting It All Together: A Market Definition Toolkit	30
2. Market Power	33
2.1 Market Share	33
2.2 Entry Barriers	34
2.3 Other Factors	36
2.4 Profits: The Non-Factor	37
	xi

Table of Contents

Part II: Agreements in Restraint of Trade	39
Chapter 4. Juridical Categories	41
1. Historical Development	41
2. Triage of the Categories	46
3. The Per Se Rule	48
3.1 Naked Price-Fixing Agreements	48
3.2 Bid Rigging, Market Manipulation, Output Reduction, and Related Market Distortion Schemes	48
3.3 Naked Market Division Agreements	48
3.4 Buyer Price Fixing or Market Division	49
3.5 Horizontal Group Boycotts	49
4. The Quick Look	49
4.1 Ethical Rules or Professional Codes of “Learned Professions”	50
4.2 Cases Where Some Restraints on Competition Are Inherent	50
4.3 Agreements with Noncommercial Motivations	50
4.4 Complex Agreements About New Circumstances or Technologies	51
5. The Rule of Reason	52
6. The Meaning of Procompetitive	56
Chapter 5. Horizontal Restraints	59
1. Cartels	59
2. Other Naked Restraints	64
2.1 Buyer Cartels	64
2.2 Maximum Price Setting	65
2.3 Agreement on Pricing Components	66
2.4 Market Division	66
2.5 Group Boycotts	69
3. Information Exchanges and Other Facilitating Practices	72
4. Joint Ventures	74
5. Other Ancillary Restraints	78
Chapter 6. Vertical Restraints	79
1. Types of Vertical Restraints	79
2. A Brief Historical Sketch	80

3. Economic Considerations	83
4. The Current Landscape	86
Part III: Exclusionary and Exploitative Practices	89
Chapter 7. The General Tests for Monopolization	91
1. Monopolization Fundamentals	91
2. The Anticompetitive Conduct Element	93
3. Competition, Not Competitors	97
4. The Microsoft Principles	98
5. Attempted Monopolization	100
Chapter 8. Exclusionary Practices	105
1. Refusals to Deal	106
2. Predatory Pricing	109
2.1 The Appropriate Measure of Cost	110
2.2 Recoupment	112
3. Predatory Overbidding and Price Squeezes	113
4. Tying	115
4.1 Legal Doctrine	115
4.2 Economics and Policy	118
4.3 Kodak and the Single-Brand Issue	121
5. Exclusive Dealing	122
6. Bundled and Loyalty Discounting	125
Chapter 9. The Robinson-Patman Act	129
1. Jurisdictional and Technical Limitations	130
2. Lines of Price Discrimination	131
3. Elements of Secondary Line Price Discrimination	132
4. The Meeting Competition and Cost Justification Defenses	134
Part IV: Mergers	137
Chapter 10. Merger Law: The Old School	139
1. Celler-Kefauver, Structuralism, and the “Government Always Wins” Period	139
2. The Chicago School Assault on Structuralism	142
3. Hart-Scott-Rodino and the Era of Silence	143

Table of Contents

Chapter 11. Merger Law: Modern Practice	145
1. Overview	146
2. Evidence of Adverse Competitive Effects and Price Discrimination	147
3. Vestiges of Structuralism: Market Definition, Shares, and Concentration	150
3.1 Defining a Relevant Market	150
3.2 Identifying the Market Participants	154
3.3 Calculating Market Shares	155
3.4 Calculating the HHI	155
4. Unilateral Effects Theories	157
5. Coordinated Effects Theories	159
6. Mitigating Factors and Defenses	160
6.1 Entry	161
6.2 Efficiencies	162
6.3 The Failing Firm Defense	162
7. Mergers of Competing Buyers and Partial Acquisitions	163
8. Vertical Mergers	164
Part V: Procedural Hurdles and Immunities	167
Chapter 12. Antitrust Injury, Standing, and Jurisdiction	169
1. Antitrust Injury	169
2. Standing	171
2.1 Purchaser Standing	171
2.2 Standing of Competitors and Other Affected Parties	173
3. Jurisdiction	175
Chapter 13. Antitrust Immunities	179
1. Noerr-Pennington Immunity	180
2. Parker Immunity	182
3. Interactions Between Noerr-Pennington and Parker Immunity	186
Glossary	189
Index	197